JOSEPH NOURSE, Register.

CINCINNATI, MAY 28.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Lottus Heights, to one of the editors, dated March 2, 1800.

The snow steamer, captain Whitwell, from New York, laden with clothing and military stores, arrived at this place on the 18th of last month, has discharged her cargo, and sails in a few days, homeward bound. The captain, who is also owner, is so well satisfied with the practicability of ascending the Mississippi, and the prospect of trade in this country, that he talked of making another trip next fall to Natchez, which is about forty five miles above this place. From the best information I can get, the river is the first square rigged vessel that ever ascended the river farther than New-Orleans.

When the British were in possession of the Floridas, of which this is a part, schooners of small burthen have ascended as far as Baton Rouge,* since which nothing but boats has made the attempt. I think this not a bad proof of the enterprize of the three nations. Spain sends boats, say of twenty-five tons burdens—Great-Britain schooners, say of seventy, and American vessels of one hundred and thirty; take into view, at the same time, that America has been in possession of the country but about two years—either of the others much longer.

* A Spanish garrison on the Mississippi, about 80 miles below Natchez.

BALTIMORE, JUNE 20.

Extract of a letter from captain—, to his owners in Baltimore.]

"Jamaica, 25th May, 1800.

"GENTLEMEN, I am sorry to inform you that we have been sent in here by the Argonaut privateer. We were captured in sight of our intended port, after a pleasant passage of eleven days. The schooner Olive has been sent in here, and a schooner of Mr Goldborough's, and a number of other American vessels. I am informed that they have late orders to send in all Americans bound to Spanish ports."

SALEM, JUNE 13.

In addition to six millions of livres, which the Batavians have agreed to pay the French Republic, agreeably to a treaty lately negotiated, citizen Buonaparte has sent a special mission to the Municipality of Amsterdam, requesting (i. e. demanding) their assistance in an extraordinary loan of ten or twelve millions. This request has caused a degree of irritation among the merchants of the latter place: having so often experienced the blessed effects of a fraternal embrace, they do not, at present, feel disposed to contribute any thing towards another. The mission quitted Amsterdam rather abruptly, after a short conference with the Directory, which did not prove to be of the most pleasant nature; having been accompa-ned, on the part of the French, with re-proaches for refusing their assistance to the Mother Republic, and finally ended with menaces.

His Majesty's (Buonaparte) letter to the Municipality, was dated "at the PALACE of the Government! &c."

BOSTON, JUNE 14.

Major-General HAMILTON, we learn, has been at Oxford, for some time, to give the necessary directions for the preservation of the public stores, in consequence of the disembodiment of the army. The General, we learn, will visit town, this day, or Monday.

We stop the press to announce the arrival of the brig Sally, captain Hampton, of this port, 13 days from St. Thomas's.
Whilst getting under way from said island, a schooner arrived in 21 days from Bordeaux, who said that the American commissioners had accomplished the object of their mission. Some extracts shall be given in our next from St. Vincent and Grenada papers, of the 19th ult.

LONDON, APRIL 15.

MURDER.

On Monday se'nnight, one Richard Dart, a grocer in St. James's Street, Port-sea, was found murdered behind his counter. On examining him, two wounds were discovered at the back part of his head, and the skull very much fractured.
From the form of the wounds it is supposed he was murdered by his own sugar hatchet, by some person who had either found an opportunity of secreting them selves in the evening, or had broke into his house during night. As he had no intimates in his house, nor intercourse with any person, except his uncle, who had access to his shop, this relative was taken on suspicion into custody, and, on being examined by the Coroner's Inquest, such circumstances appeared as to cause him to be committed to Winchester goal for trial.
—The verdict of the jury was—"Willful Murder against some person or persons unknown."

The above unfortunate person was a remarkable character. He was generally known by the name of Dicky Dart, the Wooden Grocer. He derived this title from his having apparently a very large stock of sugar, which however, was well known to be nothing but blocks of wood, covered with paper and corded. His habits were those of penury and a fullen seclusion from all social intercourse.

Altho' possessed of property to the amount of 3000l. in deeds, money, stock, &c. he was to miserably avaricious as to deny himself the common sustenance which nature requires, and the cleanliness which health and decency indispensably demand.
His bedding was rotted with filth, vermin and negligence. He had only two shirts, and those in a most tattered condition; there were no signs of any linen about himself or his dwelling. His dress was distinguished by his wearing, all weathers, five or six waistcoats, a close coat, and an old thread-bare Spencer. But with all this shabbiness of attire, he had some pretensions to beauty; for he constantly wore flour as hair powder, which he put on with a sheep's tail instead of a puff. He was seldom seen to eat, and when he was, his food was never known to be any meat, or scarcely any thing else but dried crusts, biscuits, raw turnips, radishes, and such articles as require litle or no cookery.

Being in the habit of taking nocturnal perambulations, he might, perhaps, have been followed home, and murdered by some person or persons too well acquainted with his secluded situation and confi-dable property. However this may be, we trust as Murder is an act of such atrocity as seldom suffers the perpetrators to remain undiscovered, those who have been guilty of the above horrid crime will not elude the penetrating eye of justice.

A few days ago, a party in the Abby Holm, Cumberland, returning from a cockfight, a little elevated with the choice spirits they had imbibed, stopped at a public house, to take humble ale. Two of them, men of sound lungs, engaged for a wager, to try which of them could longest continue to drink a quart at a breath!—In this manner, they each swallowed eight quarts!—when finding themselves perfectly sober, they mutually agreed to drop the contest. They had not only proved their own strength, but also the strength of the liquor.

A ministerial writer, in a jocular attempt to ridicule a gentleman in opposition, asserts that he derives nobles, noble, noblesse, &c. from nob, the head.—With due respect to this facetious writer, we are not of opinion that many of the nobles nobles, or noblesse, are in the smallest degree indebted to the nob for the rank they hold!

The following remedy is mentioned in the Paris Journals, for the bite of a mad dog, or of any other animal, seized with madness, and may be used 24 hours, or even longer after the accident: the wounded spot should be burnt with a red hot iron, so as to penetrate profoundly, and produce a considerable emission of matter, in which the virus is contained.
The moment the iron is taken away, the wound should be abundantly washed with water, rather warm, and the pain will immediately cease. This operation has been repeatedly tried by citizen Velletan, professor of the school of medicine of Paris, and has as he states, been always found effective.

APRIL 23.

The Emperor of Germany has pledged himself to reinstate the King of Sardinia in his dominions, possessed by him before the war. A treaty to that effect has been concluded between the two Monarchs.
Had this been done sooner, it is possible there would have been a more effectual co operation among the allied powers than we have yet witnessed.

By the late arrangements between Austria, England, the Elector Palatine, the Duke of Wirtemberg, and the Circle of Suabia, it has been agreed, that the Elector Palatine, besides his contingent of 4000 men, shall furnish a body of 12,000, to be in they pay of Great Britain; that the Duke of Wirtemberg shall furnish also, and under conditions, a body of 6000 men; that the Circle of Suabia shall provide a corps of 10 000 men, including its contingents, and take measures to obtain from the Court of St. James's a proportionate indemnification; also, that England shall take into pay the corps of Conde, which united to the Swiss Emigrant regiments, shall, as well as the Palatine troops and those of Wirtemberg and Suabia, serve in the Imperial army and form a part of it.

It is certain that the Prince of Conde is appointed Commander in Chief of all the troops in the pay of England. They will form altogether an army of 30,000 men, who will act separately from the Austrian army and that of the Empire, though under the orders of the Commander in chief. The Prince of Conde is going to Vienna to concert with Lord Macartney the English Ambassador, and with the Austrian Minister, on the means of rendering this army as useful as possible to the coalition. Several emigrant officers of rank will serve under the Prince of Conde.

Of Peace, the papers speak no longer in a tone of confidence. The Ultimatum of Austria has, it is said, decided for War.
That this campaign will be no less bloody than any which has preceded it, every thing tends to shew. The views of Bionaparte seem to be directed to very active operations in Italy, as well as in Germany. A part of the army of Reserve is, it is said, to defend immediately from Dijon to Chalon, in order to be nearer Simon. It appears to be the intention of the Chief Consul to attempt to enter the Northern part of Piedmont from the Valleys; a movement which, obliging the Au-strians to divide their force, would probably deter them from advancing against Nice.

The official Journal insists that the Emperor of Russia has absolutely and wholly withdrawn himself from the Coalition, and that Sir Home Popham has completely failed in his mission. It is added, that the troops in Guernsey and Jersey will be immediately ordered home. To this intelligence, every thing that we have heard for some time past incline us to give it credit.

HAQUE, APRIL 5.

Two facts appear to us to indicate, more than any thing, the continuance of the war. Orders were issued on the 26th of March to all the armed marksmen of the Vorarlberg, the Grisons, and the Tyrol, to hold themselves in readiness to march to their advanced posts; that is what the court of Vienna has never done but in cases of real necessity. Another act

We are informed that putting potatoes near the fire that are intended for early growth to induce them to shoot, and then cutting the potatoe, and carefully planting it with the shoot uppermost, will produce a crop five or six weeks sooner than the ordinary way of setting them, and a crop rather more productive.

FROM THE SALEM GAZETTE.

The Aurora gives an account of a cau cus held on the 14th ult. at the lodgings of Mr. Read, (senator from South Caro lina,) on the subject of the election of pre sident and vice-president; in which the particular sentiments delivered by Mr.
Read, Mr. Goodhue and others, are stat ed. The whole of that very evening, however, Mr. Read spent at the theatre —but possibly he possesses the quality of ebriety! and Mr. Goodhue must have travelled with the rapidity of lightning, for he was in Salem on the 15th!

The Hon. Theodore Sedgwick, late Speaker of the House of Representatives, has addressed a farewell letter to his con stituents. Speaking of the government of the United States, he observes, "I will not say its measures have been perfect, for it has been conducted by human agents—I will however declare it has not erred from intention—it has committed no act of injustice or oppression—it has never wan tonly imposed any public burden." Re marking on the base art used by the Jaco bins to bring the government into disre pute, he says—"By these means alarm and suspicion have been created; a go vernment I will not say perfect, but ho nest and patriotic, has been slandered, and the efforts for why should not the truth be declared? have become extensive and alarming."

An ingenious Lady has written a de fence of wigs, in which she affirms, that the whole dispute turns upon this single point: "Whether it is better to possess a fine head of hair by nature, or by per fume?"

An Irish Gentleman at the Mount, after a long discussion upon the merits of the Constitutional Director Carnot, and his quondam colleagues, said, "In faith and truth he believed it was a quarrel betwene the greatest Rebel that ever was unhang ed, upon the one hand, and the Devil in Carnot on the other."

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 19.

Extract of a letter from Mess. Berran ger & Company, dated Surinam, 12th April 1800; consignees of the ship Bro thers of Philadelphia.

"The Governor has granted all neu trals to take produce to England, on ac count of the scarcity of vessels; and they have paid no more outward duties than national ships. We have been obliged to give security for two thousand ling, in order that the ship may not enter an enemy's port, (but in case of capture.) You will therefore forward by the first op portunity, certificates of her landing the cargo in a British port."

Extra of a letter from David M. Clark son, Esquire, dated St Kitts, 17th May, 1800; to the owners of the ship Bro thers.

"I have to inform you with great con cern, of the ship Brothers, Moses Hawkins master, being here with a very valuable cargo from Surinam, bound to London, and has been seized here with three other neutral vessels, for having acted contrary to act of parliament, in taking the produce of the Colonies, which is not permitted but in British ships, and navigated accor ding to law."

JUNE 20.

The President of the United States ar rived in to wn yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, from the city of Washington, on his journey to his seat in Massachu setts.

We are sorry to announce, that the capture of the ship Arile, Coates, from Canton, to this port, is confirmed. A letter received this morning, states that captain Hampton, who has arrived at Wil mington, (D.) states, that at St. Thomas, he was informed by Mr. Coppinger, for merly of this city, that he had received a letter from a gentleman in Guadaloupe, stating that the above ship had arrived there on the 23d May, after a severe en gagement, in which a number of her crew had been killed.

It is not ascertained who of the crew are among the killed; and it would per haps be an unjustifiable violence on the feeling of those who have friends on board were we to proceed to state particulars up on the authority of rumour. A day or two will no doubt furnish us with correct and undoubted information on this subject.

The brig Ateon, capt. Whitwell, from New Orleans, bound to New York, caught fire, by some unknown cause, on or about the 17th inst. The crew and passengers, amounting to 17, took to the long boat, and after remaining sixteen hours in that situation, were humanely taken up by a pilot boat, which arrived yesterday at Fort Mifflin.

NEW YORK, JUNE 20.

Last evening arrived here the brig Hope, captain Nichols, of Derby, in 19 days from St. Kitts. Dr. Tilton, late sur geon of the ship Ariel, Coates, from Can ton to Philadelphia, came passenger in this brig. We are concerned to state, that he brings a confirmation of the fate of the A riel, which vessel was captured on the 5th of May, by the French privateers Dio mede, of 12 guns, and 100 men, and the Harmonie, of 10 guns and 97 men, after a smart engagement of one hour, in which the Ariel had two men killed, and three wounded.

Capt. Coates received a ball in the back, and Mr. Burger, of this city, who also behaved with great gallantry during the action, was wounded by a musket ball which entered his back, and came out at his chin. The loss of the privateer was not known. The Ariel arrived at Gau daloupe the 20th May, and part of her cargo sold before our informant left that place.

Mr. Tilton further adds, 2 or 3 Ame rican vessels were daily brought in there; & that the owner of the above privateers is a mulatto, who was lately a slave of Martinique, and who, in a few months, has accumulated the sum of half a million Sterling by privateering!

PORTSMOUTH, JUNE 12.

Extract of a letter from captain Ala Bod well, of the ship Industry, who sailed from this port, the 8th April, 1800—to his owners in this town.

"In lat. 20 long. 55, 6 o'clock A. M. a French national frigate Borceau, com manded by captain Jenies, from Guada loupe, mounting 24 guns, came up with us, and ordered our colours down—then came on board, and took me and all my crew, except two, and put us on board the frigate, and then put a prize master on board, took some provisions, and ordered the ships for Guadaloupe—the frigate had captured (the evening before) brig De light, capt. Glazier, from Phila delphia, loaded with ... goods, it being five wea ther they unloaded her in about 4 hours, and delivered her to us, and took the principal part of our clothing, instru ments, charts, &c. then sent us on board the brig, which we found in a miserable situation; her rigging cut, cabin windows and camboes stove to pieces.

The next day we spoke the schooner Perry, captain Montgomery, from Nor folk, who supplied us with water and provisions, for the French had left us but little of either (except flour) but no small stores: in 6 hours after, we were chased by the privateer schooner Patriot, captain Rough, from Guadaloupe, mounting 14 guns, boarded us, took some flour, cloth ing, spars, sails, &c. then put on board the crew of the ship Commerce, from Portland, and the crew of the brig Ma ry, from Middletown, both of which were captured on the 15th of May; on the next day we spoke the brig Drake, of Portsmouth, from North Carolina, bound to St. Thomas, who supplied us with provisions. On the 18th a private er schooner from Guadaloupe, mounting 14 guns, hove in sight, and after hailing, boarded us, and took out some flour, then put on board of us the crews of schooner Thomas, capt. Hatty, from Philadelphia, and schooner Betty, captain Sillick, from New-York, then left us with upwards of 40 people on board, and very short of provisions and water, we were then ob liged to go upon a short allowance and en deavor to make the best port in America.

The above frigate brought out Buona parte's commissioners to Guadaloupe. The commissioner also informed us, that twelve privateers lately sailed from Guadaloupe together, and three of them bound to the American coast.

PITTSBURGH, JUNE 14.

We are informed, that about 10 or 12 days ago, two Indians were killed on the Muskungum, about 80 miles from the mouth. It is said, that the Indians having stolen horses were pursued by a party of men, who soon came within sight of them and discovering the horses in their posses sion, fired and killed the two Indians. It is also said, that since this affair, the Indi ans have generally left their camps, and returned to their towns, and that great alarm prevails in the settlement near where this affair happened.

The Mirror, in future, will be pub lished between 10 and 12 o'clock in the forenoon. This alteration of the time of publication is in consequence of the present arrangement in the Post Office department—The Northern Mail ar rives here now between 10 and 12 o'clock at night; whereby the intelli gence of the Mail preceeding each publi cation could not, by an adherence to the usual time of publication, be published for two days after its receipt; but which, by this change, may be published in a few hours after its arrival. As this step is taken, with a view of giving the intelligence by the Northern Mail earlier than we otherwise could do, it is presumed its motive will make it sa tisfactory to our subscribers.

Sixty Dollars Reward.

FRANK and CATO, two brothers, ran away from the subscriber on the 2d instant.
Frank is about 25 years of age, a very black negro, and nearly if not quite 6 feet high—straight, stout, active, and well made. He has a large scar, I think, on his left side, and perhaps more than one, occasioned I believe, either by a burn or a scald when young,— with him he has a variety of clothing; among which is a coat of both coating and white coun try cloth vest, lead coloured overalls of broad cloth, white cassimere breeches, a white shirt and one or two oxburg do. a coarse hat, and a pair of shoes and stockings, &c. He is a plausible fellow, and a very great rogue.
CATO is 22 years of age, a well set fellow, perhaps about, or rather more than 5 feet 6 inches high, has a round face, and as well as I now recollect, a very small straight scar on it somewhere. He is not quite so black as Frank, is likely and intelligent. His clothes are, a bath coating coat, overalls of the same, a striped vest, shoes and stockings, and an old fashioned beaver hat with a low round crown, and the rim cut very narrow by himself. The above negroes, besides the clothes alluded to, have some of negro cotton. They may separate, and it is possible may change their names as well as clothes, obtain forged papers, and prob ably assume the name of some of those nume rous tribes of mulattoes and negroes, (many of whom have gained their freedom) I mean the Butlers, Swansons, Thomases, &c.
As the aforesaid negroes have two sisters, the property of Mrs. Stephen Cawood, below and near Alexandria, in Virginia, they may en deavor to pay them a visit, and lurk about in that neighbourhood; or passing on as freemen, hire themselves in Alexandria, the Federal City, or George Town, or pass on to Balti more. Frank and Cato were originally bred as waiters in the house, but for several years past have worked in the crops, and are excellent plowmen and carriers, and can do any work about a plantation.
All captains, masters of vessels, and others, are hereby forewarned from harboring or em ploying said negroes. Whoever will bring them to me, or secure them in any goal so that I get them again, shall receive Thirty Dollars for each.

Lands for Sale, or exchange for other Property.

SEVEN hundred and eighty-eight acres in the county of Hampshire, on the waters of Great Cape Capon, about 80 miles from the Warm Springs, and 30 from Winchester.— This land is full of wood, oak and Pine Timber.
 Two excellent farms may be made, with 30 to 50 acres of bottom, and rich high lands to each; and in the heart of the timber there is a fine seat for a saw-mill. Capt. Daniel Rice will show the lands.

Three thousand eight hundred and forty-five acres in the county of Ohio, on the waters of Grave and Fish creeks, near the river Ohio, and about 80 miles below Pittsburg. Some of these lands are very good, with considerable quantities of rich bottom, and plenty of excellent timber. Robert Woods, Esq. the Surveyor of that county, will show these lands.

One hundred seventy six and three-fourths acres, within three miles of the Warm Springs, upon Great Cape-Capon, near its mouth, and within $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile of the River Potomac. This land has about 70 to 80 acres of rich bottom, mostly in cultivation, with 274 fine sugar trees on it; from which, I am informed, there may be made 6000 lb. of good sugar annually. There is also a seat for grist and saw mills on it, equal to any in that neighbourhood, and upon a never failing stream of water. The upland is rich, with plenty of timber, and part under cultivation. This farm is well improved with a good orchard, houses and fencing, and rented last year for produce equal to sixty pounds per ann.
 Mr. Joseph Butler, at the Warm Springs, will show it. I will sell all, or any of the above lands for cash, or upon credit, or take in exchange for them lands in Fairfax County, or Lots of land in the town of Alexandria, or the city of Washington.

Valuable Property FOR SALE.

THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS FOR SALE, That valuable Property known by the name of Clifton Paper-Mill,

With all the improvements, and 50 acres of Land; most of which is in wood. The mill is an over-shot, with a wheel of 30 feet 9 inches in diameter, on a constant stream as any in this part of the country. She is a two vat mill, and every way calculated for that purpose, with two iron presses of the best construction, made by Reynolds and Sharpless, Brandywine Mills, a let-tling pond of fine water at the mill door, with an excellent pump for conveying the water to the engines, a fine kettle, moulds, flats, and every other apparatus for carrying on the Paper-Making business.

The mill house is 50 by 28 feet, two stories high, with a loft—There are also two vat-houses, a drying house, and rag-house, convenient to the mill, with a barn fenced on each side, sufficient to hold ten horses; a convenient dwelling house (not quite finished) with a kitchen, meat-house, and corn-house; the whole of which has been built within these 2 years past. There is a thriving young orchard of peach and other fruit trees, just beginning to bear.

This property lies within $\frac{1}{2}$ miles of Dumfries, on tide-water, and within about 34 miles of Alexandria, City of Washington, and G.
 Town, at which places the manufacturer finds a ready market, and where a large proportion of materials are collected. A water conveyance offers almost at any time, there being feveral craft which constantly trade to and from the above places. Falmouth and Frederickburg are within 25 miles; these, with the places above, are sufficient to vend all the manufacture that can be made. The situation of this property must render it a desirable acquisition to any person inclined to engage in this line of business; and particularly so, as the Federal Government is just upon removing to the City of Washington, which must, of course, make the demand still greater. It is deemed unnecessary to say any thing more respecting the premises, as it is presumed any person inclined to purchase would wish to see them. Nothing would induce me to part with this valuable property, but for the pressing demands against those concerned, who are anxious to discharge them; therefore a great bargain may be expected. Any further information required may be known on application to JOHN SOWDEN.
 Clifton Paper-Mill, May 22, 1800.

For Sale,

A Very valuable TRACT of LAND, in the lower end of King William County, in the State of Virginia, finely timbered with oak, cypress, &c. beautifully situated at the confluence of the rivers Pamunkey and Mattaponi, and in its whole extent bounded by those two rivers.

This Land is generally known by the name of the West Point Tract, from its vicinity to a little village of that name. It contains about 2,200 acres of high land, and 700 of fine valuable marsh or meadow.

To detail the many advantages attached to this land, cannot well be done in a small compass; suffice it to say, without the aid of exaggeration, that few tracts exceed it in fertility of soil, in pleasantness, healthfulness of situation, and the abundant other gifts which nature has lavished upon it. Fish of various kinds, oysters, wild fowl, and the best crabs in the State, are plentifully to be had in the adjoining rivers and creeks.

It is presumable that no person will perchase such a tract of land without having sufficient proof of its value; yet there is one circumstance so singularly advantageous, that it ought not to be omitted, which is, that there is no part of it more than half a mile from navigation, and that for vessels of any burthen.

The terms of sale will be made known by application to the subscribers, who will warrant the title.

 of Shiloh.

Twenty Dollars Reward

FOR apprehending and delivering to me a Mulatto Slave named COPPER, who went off from my plantation, on Broad Run, in Loudoun County, on Sunday the first day of this month. He is about five feet eight inches high, rather thick, has a bushy head, and very clumsy, slow walk. He had on when he went away a blue coat, striped waistcoat and fustian breeches. As his father and mother are in Alexandria, and he lived with me near that place, I rather suspect that he has travelled that way. I will give the above reward for the apprehending and delivering him to me at this place, if taken out of the county, or Ten Dollars if taken in it.
